

500 E. Carson Plaza Dr., Suite 127
Carson, California 90746
T. (310) 756.1560
F. (310) 756-1562
www.hpcemployment.org

Opening: Empowering Counselor Supervisor, Parole-Community Transition Project

Location: Central Los Angeles Locations Pay: $24.04hr; 2 year project Hours: Full-time and Part-time

Benefits: 401K, Flexible Spending, Employee Assistance Program, Medical, Dental and Vision.

Requirements: Possess a valid license issued by the California Board of Behavioral Science Examiners.

Alcohol and Drug Counselor certification by an agency approved and recognized by ADP and/or must possess a Marriage and Family Therapist License, 2 yrs experience as a Clinical Social Worker or 1 year experience working with the criminal justice population in a community based program; substance program; or prison-type setting. Personal & Reliable Vehicle, Drivers License, Vehicle Registration, and Insurance required. Travel within LA County required. A valid photo ID, proof of citizenship, security check and CPR/First Aid Training required.

Who are we? HPC is one of Southern California's top providers of program management and assistance to disadvantaged people re-entering the workforce. We market positive, punishment-free, motivation-enhancing counseling and advice. Services certified and funded through a wide range of key organizations including the Social Security Administration, the U.S Department of Labor, and the California Department of Corrections. We provide excellent employee opportunities for continued career development and are an equal opportunity employer. Find out more about how the success of our clients is our most important product by going to www.HPCemployment.org.

Position: The ideal applicant will provide evidence of superior administration that includes (1) assurance and meticulous documentation of rule and regulation compliance, (2) management, training, and maintenance of superior performance among staff with regard to case management including diagnosis, group and individual treatment, and wrap-around referral regarding career/vocational training, mental health, substance abuse, and community integration, (3) development of specific goals, priorities, and plans to accomplish your work, (4) knowledge of principles, methods, and procedures for diagnosis, treatment, and rehabilitation of physical and mental dysfunctions, and for career counseling and guidance, and (5) supportive interaction with clients prone to verbal and physical confrontation. The ideal applicant will demonstrate superior abilities and skills in (1) knowing how to lead and coordinate people and model good HR behaviors, (2) monitoring self and others to make improvements or take corrective actions, (3) analyzing and evaluating evaluate information to choose the best solution and solve problems, (4) telling when something is wrong or likely to go wrong, (5) persisting in the face of obstacles, (6) developing and maintaining constructive and cooperative relationships with others, (7) maintaining composure, keeping emotions in check, controlling anger, and avoiding aggressive behavior, even in very difficult situations, (8) accepting criticism and dealing calmly and effectively with high-stress situations, (9) attending to detail and thorough in completing tasks, (10) being honest and ethical, (11) preferring to work with others rather than alone, (12) giving full attention to what other people are saying, taking time to understand the points being made, not interrupting at inappropriate times, (13) being socially perceptive, (14) motivating, developing, and directing people as they work, and (15) managing one's own time and the time of others to meet deadlines and performance goals. The position is a new opening. The employee will report to the Community Program Manager and be a part of the Community Base Coalition Project.

To apply: Request a preliminary application packet from our Human Resource Department. You may contact the Human Resources Dept. at (310) 756-1560. Submit to resume@hpcemployment.org or fax to (310) 756-1562.